

NAWIC Tucson Chapter #122

Tucson, AZ

April 2023

Hello NAWIC Members & Friends,

I am bursting with excitement and pride! The Tucson NAWIC Chapter #122 has 50 MEMBERS! The Tucson Chapter had a great month with nine new members. Five of the new members are YWCA – Students.

The chapter's April Membership Dinner was speaker Emily Wilson (YWCA Program Manager). Her presentation included how the Pathways Program for single mothers got started, the education components, course study, eligibility, benefits, and how to sign up. If you would like more information about this program, please contact Emily Wilson – ewilson@ywcatucson.org

The Tucson Chapter is partnering with the YWCA of Southern Arizona. This is a great time for the chapter to kick-start our mentorship program. Stay tuned for more information about the chapter's mentorship program.

We all should be extremely proud of our chapter and the great things we have accomplished.

Honored To Be Your President,
Tracy D. Miller

I have been with Brightview for almost 3 years now. I have definitely learned a lot since starting with the company. I used to work in the commercial furniture industry before, I was with an installation company for 13 years, very different fields but loved working in both.

Brightview is one of the biggest landscaping companies in the country, it came to Tucson about 4 years ago when they bought out Groundskeepers. It's a company that continues to grow and a

Thank you to Leah Swisher with ACT for being our April Sponsor. The raffle prize was a $50 gift card to Victoria Secrets. The winner was Gina Hansen with Habitat of Humanity. If you are interested in sponsoring a dinner, contact Tracy Miller.

Thank you, Leah Swisher with ACT, also, our Chapter Treasure for inviting us to the ACT Charity Golf Tournament Benefiting Habitat for Humanity. The tournament was on April 7th. Tracy Miller, Jamie Thrush, Kimberly Dycus, Kimberly Rodriguez and Amanda Frank manned the hole. Thank you, ladies, for getting up so early and representing our chapter at the tournament. We had a 50/50 drawing raising $874.00. The chapter received half of the prize that will be put into our scholarship fund.
